

Quality connects – Audi Hungaria awarded the outstanding artist of the Győr Ballet

- Dancer Rebeka Szendrey received this year's Audi Hungaria Quality Dance Award
- Kinga Németh, Member of the Board of Management of Audi Hungaria responsible for Human Resources and Organization, said, "The power of dance is that it can reach the deepest layers of the human soul – it is a pleasure for us to be part of this experience as a sponsor."

Győr, 23 November 2025 – Art lovers were treated to a festive moment at the premiere of Nosferatu on the stage of the Győr Ballet, where the 12th Audi Hungaria Quality Dance Award was presented at the end of the premiere. The award was presented by Kinga Németh, Member of the Board of Management of Audi Hungaria responsible for Human Resources and Organization, to Rebeka Szendrey, the company's outstanding dancer.

"The partnership between art and business enables high quality and sustainable artistic performance. A good example of this is the decades-long cooperation between Audi Hungaria and the Győr Ballet. The award-winning ballet artist Rebeka Szendrey's dedication, professional development and stage presence are exemplary. It is a pleasure for us that our company can support talents who enhance the reputation of Hungarian culture at home and on the dance stages of the world," said Kinga Németh, Member of the Board of Management of Audi Hungaria responsible for Human Resources and Organization.

The artist Rebeka Szendrey graduated from the Department of Classical Ballet at the Hungarian Dance University in 2020, and was a member of the Pécs Ballet for one year. She joined the Győr Ballet in 2021, where he/she has since performed in several outstanding productions, including Peer Gynt, The Scarlet Letter, Transit, Abigél, Eve and Adam, and Death and the Maiden. Her artistic career is enriched by national and international courses and competition results.

Audi Hungaria founded the Quality Dance Award in 2014, which is awarded every year to the most outstanding dancer of the Győr Ballet. The Audi Hungaria has been a main sponsor of the company for more than 26 years, contributing to the high quality cultural offer of Győr and the region.
